

Friday 9th February

What a great response we've had throughout Children's Mental Health week. In assembly, we showed all of the photos that children submitted, showing off what made them feel proud to be them. The music at the start of the school day has been a hit - in our assembly on Tuesday, we voted that we should continue this after half term! I'm always happy to receive new song requests for our Mullion School playlist, so please keep them coming!

As we finish the Spring half-term, we are now half way through the year! I am now welcoming new submissions to be the newsletter header for the second half of the Spring term. All children need to do is create a design the size of the current header (see the photo at the top of the page) and submit to me to be in with the chance for being selected.

Have a lovely half term and we will see you back in school on Monday 19th February.

Thursday 7th March

For this year's World Book Day, we are inviting children to wear a decorated t-shirt to school. So grab a plain t-shirt (or an old t-shirt turned inside out) and design a new book cover of your favourite book or draw your favourite character on it!

World Book Week

This year, we are hosting a veritable banquet of book themed activities and extending World Book Day to a full week! With the incredible ideas and help of Andrea Ellis and Jane Whaley, we are putting on a programme of interactive, book-related experiences throughout the week and, of course, will also be celebrating our love of books on Thursday 7th March with the rest of the country! Further details about the week will come after half term but we wanted to get you all started on T-shirt designs over the half term break.

Badminton

Congratulations to all our badminton players who have been competing in the Year 4/5/6 league at Helston College this term. It has been fantastic to see our players improve their game over the 4 weeks and we are pleased to announce our teams came 3rd and 5th overall. The children will still have the chance to continue to improve their newly learnt skills at badminton club which will continue in school after half term.

Gymnastics

Three Mullion Primary teams entered the KSI gymnastics competition at Penryn Gymnastics Centre on Monday. Over 56 children took part from schools across Helston and the Lizard. Each school competed in floor and body management routines as well as having some time to explore the vaulting and trampoline areas of the gym. We are very proud to announce that Mullion Primary School came First in the Club competition, First in the non club competition and Vida was the highest scoring individual!! What an amazing achievement—well done to all our super gymnasts!
